

International Homicide Investigators Association Mass Casualty/Targeted Violence Course

The IHIA and the FBI will be holding our inaugural Mass Casualty and Targeted Violence Course. This course is scheduled for March 28, 2022 to April 1, 2022, at the Virginia State Police Academy, North Chesterfield, VA. The cost is $390, which includes all training materials, IHIA membership, t-shirt, coffee each morning, and a networking event (coin/patch swap).

You may register at www.ihia.org. Space is limited for this class, so please register early if you plan to attend. Law enforcement credentials required.

Topics Include:

- National Threat Assessment and Threat Management (TATM) Initiative
- Introduction to The Behavioral Threat Assessment Center (BTAC)
- Research Related to Pre-Attack Behaviors of Active Shooters
- Pathway to Violence
- Threat Assessment Threat Management (TATM) Concepts and How to Build a Team
- Post-Incident Response
- Investigative Resources
- Legal Considerations: Tools and Opportunities
- Victim Services
- Trauma, Resiliency and Self-Care
- Lessons Learned/Best Practices
- Media and Leadership
- Table Top Exercise (TTX)

For questions, please contact:

Capt. Mike Corrado (ret), (609) 289-6233, mcorrado@ihia.org

Lt. Steve Lewis (ret), (813) 299-9921, slewis@ihia.org

Training location: Virginia State Police Academy, 7700 Midlothian Turnpike,
North Chesterfield, VA 23235

For lodging information, please visit www.ihia.org.