

Supervisory Special Agent (SSA) Lindsay Eberhard-Cook, Federal Bureau of Investigation, Investigative Genetic Genealogy (IGG) Program Manager

SSA Lindsay Eberhard-Cook has been with the Federal Bureau of Investigation for fourteen years. She has a bachelor's degree in biology from Providence College, and prior to the FBI worked in both the Pharmaceutical Industry and the Food Science field. During her time with the FBI, SSA Eberhard-Cook worked on the Crimes Against Children Task Force, served as the FBI Los Angeles Field office Evidence Response Team Senior Team Leader, has supervised the LA Critical Incidence Response Squad and worked Violent Crimes. SSA Eberhard-Cook has been a part of the FBI IGG team for over three years and is currently assigned to Head Quarters as one of the IGG Program Managers and is based out of the Los Angeles Field Office.